"Ah, pick your nose, harp-picker," Labby said, and Tarry took offense, and people took sides, and while the dispute was at its brief height, Rose put her fife in her pocket and slipped away.. moving in the opposite direction, took it back down. This turned out to be the wrong level, it was. She got him onto his bed, pulled the shoes off his feet, and left him sleeping. Berry came in late. "And a man comes when you knock, an ordinary-looking man. And he gives you a test. You have to say a certain word, a password, before he'll let you in. If you don't know it, you can never go in. But if he lets you in, then from inside you see that the door is entirely different - it's made out of horn, with a tree carved on it, and the frame is made out of a tooth, one tooth of a dragon that lived long, long before Erreth-Akbe, before Morred, before there were people in Earthsea. There were only dragons, to begin with. They found the tooth on Mount Onn, in Havnor, at the centre of the world. And the leaves of the tree are carved so thin that the light shines through them, but the door's so strong that if the Doorkeeper shuts it no spell could ever open it. And then the Doorkeeper takes you down a hall and another hall, till you're lost and bewildered, and then suddenly you come out under the sky. In the Court of the Fountain, in the very deepest inside of the Great House. And that's where the Archmage would be, if he was there..." Licky walked him out early every morning, and often they wandered about till late afternoon. Licky was silent and patient. "I learned about this from Ard," he said, and paused again.. He looked up. The hillside above the stream was that same hill where he had come that day with Tinaral, Anieb's presence within him. It was only a few steps round it to the scar, the seam, still clear enough under the green grasses of summer.. "What all the students do. Live alone in a stone cell and learn to be wise! It might not be what. with warm oils and massage, herbs and chants. They talked to him and listened when he talked. "Probably not," the wizard said, and then, appearing to notice Diamond, put down his pen and said, "Young man, I must ask you if you wish to continue studying with me." He saw her now more clearly than he had seen her in the tower. He saw her more clearly than he had ever seen anyone. He saw the thin arms, the swollen joints of elbow and wrist, the childish nape of her neck. It was as if she was with him in the room. It was as if she was in him, as if she was him. She looked at him. He saw her look at him. He saw himself through her eyes.. The house vanished. No walls, no roof, nobody. Early stood on the dust of the village square in. dying of South Port. Hemlock was glad to let him do so. His own pleasure was in studying and, as. "Once in his lifetime, if he's lucky, a wizard finds somebody he can talk to." Nemmerle had said.
